The Sunday Arts & Literature Series

Sun, Sep 15 – 3 pm: The Copernican Revolution: Myth vs. Reality with Harry Ringenmacher, Ph.D. (1)
Science, Heresy, Rumor. Fact. What really happened when Copernicus put the sun at the center of the universe?

Sun, Oct 27 – 3 pm: Creativity & Resilience with Linda Baker-Cimini (1)
Join the always entertaining Linda Baker-Cimini on a laugh filled tour of her engaging and sometimes absurd artwork.

Sun, Nov 10 – 3 pm: Why Does the Constitution Matter? with Stephen Gottlieb (2)
Discuss the role of the Constitution in every day life. Join Professor Gottlieb in a lively debate about the day-to-day impact of this historic document.

Sun, Dec 8 – 3 pm: Timeless Yuletide Tales with Laurie Portocarrero (3)
Stories for all ages in celebration of the winter holidays, with the beauty and magic of the season brought to life. The library’s annual holiday party will follow.

More Sunday Programs

Sun, Sep 22 – 3pm: Understanding Addiction with Drew Assini, MA, LCADC
Dealing with addiction, or with a loved one who suffers from addiction, can be extremely difficult. Especially if we don’t understand what’s actually happening. First in a 2-part series.

Sun, Oct 13 – 3pm: Meditation for the Whole Family with Drew Assini, MA, LCADC
Meditation is a practice that everyone in the family can do, each in their own way. No prior experience necessary. Class/talk/group discussion. Bring the young ones.

Sun, Nov 17 – 3pm: A Mother’s Journey Through the Opiate Addiction Crisis with Lynda Hacker Araoz
Author of The Weight of a Feather, Lynda shares her story as she faced the treachery of addiction, the unravelling of her family, and the roadblocks on the way to recovery. Second in the series.

Wed, starting Sep 4 – 6:30pm: Community Yoga with Mia Briffa
Mia is a new Yoga instructor who wants to share her joy of Yoga with others. This is a community-based class held at NCFL. The suggested donation of $5 - $10 will go directly to Ms. Briffa.

Enjoy Yourself, and Support the Library With These Fund Raisers

Sat, Sep 21 – 5:30 pm: The Traveling Dinner
Join us for cocktails, followed by intimate dinners at area homes. Finish with desserts at the library. Cocktails only: $35. Cocktails & Dinner: $60. Details are available at the library or on the library web site.

Drawing on Sun, Dec. 8th: Quilt Raffle
A gorgeous, handmade queen sized quilt. Raffle tickets are available now. $3 each or 4 for $10. Drawing Dec. 8th, at the library’s holiday party.

Ongoing: Clynk
The library has bags for recycling bottles. Take your bottles to a Clynk station, and the bar code on the bag will be read, automatically depositing the money into the library’s account. Good for the environment, good for the library.

Fri, Jan 31 – 5:30 to 7:30 pm: Chase the Chill
Chase away the chill of winter, relaxing with neighbors, a beverage, and a gorgeous spread of hors d’oeuvres. Tickets are $35 each and will be available at the library.

More info is always available at the library, by calling 766-3211, or on-line.
