

JANUARY 2022 LIBRARY EVENTS

Friday for Kids!

Friday Jan.7, 4:00pm

Supervised one-hour group. Time outside, followed by an indoor craft and time to choose books to take home.

Free Computer Help

via Phone or Zoom

Monday, Jan 10, 1:00pm, phone or Zoom

Do you need help with your laptop, smartphone, tablet, or other device? Call the library to schedule an in-person or virtual appointment. (518) 766-3211

Buying & Selling on the Internet

Wednesday Jan.12, 10:00am via Zoom

Interested in learning how to sell online? Maureen Gardner will guide you through the steps from creating a listing to shipping along with best practices and helpful advice. Items for sale can include clothing, collectibles, jewelry, furniture, or practically anything with the expanded marketing potential of eBay, Facebook Marketplace and more.

Free Knitting with Sandy

Thursday Jan. 13 10:00am via Zoom

No experience needed. Get help for experienced knitters or just work on your own

Friday for Kids!

Friday, Jan.14, 4:00pm

Supervised one-hour group. Weather permitting there will time to run around outside, followed by an indoor craft and time to choose books to take home. Parents are not expected to participate and can look for books themselves inside or use the Little Library for quiet time.

Closed Martin Luther King, Jr. Day

January 17

Notorious RBG: The Life and Times of Ruth Bader Ginsburg

Wednesday Jan.19, 6:00-7:00pm via Zoom

New-York Historical Society

Special exhibition and virtual presentation

Friday for Kids!

Friday Jan. 21, 4:00pm

Supervised one-hour group. Weather permitting there will time to run around outside, followed by an indoor craft and time to choose books to take home. Parents are not expected to participate and can look for books themselves inside or use the Little Library for quiet time.

Free Computer Help

Monday Jan.24, 1:00pm, phone or Zoom

Do you need help with your laptop, smartphone, tablet, or other device? Call the library to schedule an in-person or virtual appointment. (518) 766-3211

Friday for Kids!

Friday Jan. 28, 4:00pm

Supervised one-hour group. Weather permitting there will time to run around outside, followed by an indoor craft and time to choose books to take home. Parents are not expected to participate and can look for books themselves inside or use the Little Library for quiet time.

Free Computer Help

Monday Jan.24, 1:00pm, phone or Zoom

Do you need help with your laptop, smartphone, tablet, or other device? Call the library to schedule an in-person or virtual appointment. (518) 766-3211

Please note: Masks are required for all events

For more information call (518) 766-3211, email Mail@NorthChathamLibrary.org or visit our website NorthChathamLibrary.org